Health insurance coverage is guaranteed available in North Carolina. An insurer may not refuse to issue coverage to an individual or charge an individual more premiums because of their health status or any pre-existing conditions. Premium assistance is available for qualifying individuals for plans purchased through the federal Health Insurance Marketplace. See the note below for more information.

 These insurers participate on the federal Health Insurance Marketplace (aka "the Exchange") where qualifying individuals can access federal premium assistance programs. Please visit <https://www.healthcare.gov/> or contact the insurers directly or your agent/broker for more information.*
