INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING PROOF OF CLAIM FORM

This proof of claim form is used for filing a claim against North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company ("NC Mutual"). If you have a claim against NC Mutual, you must file a completed proof of claim form with the Liquidator by the bar date. To file by the bar date the proof of claim form must be postmarked or received by Liquidator no later than 11:59 PM EDT on October 31, 2023. Failure to file a timely claim may result in denial of your claim or consideration of your claim. Policyholders do NOT need to file a proof of claim at this time.

Please print legibly in ink or type. Complete all of the applicable sections and blanks, read and sign. Attach additional sheets as necessary. In the event you do not know certain information, please write "unknown." You may supplement your proof of claim when you have more information, provided you do so promptly after you obtain the information. If you have more than one claim against NC Mutual a separate proof of claim must be submitted for each claim. You may make copies of the proof of claim form, request additional copies from the Liquidator using the address below or download the form from the Liquidator website at: <https://www.ncdoi.gov/insurance-industry/regulatory-actions-receiverships> A proof of claim must be filed even if a claim was made against NC Mutual prior to liquidation. You are advised to keep a completed copy for your records.

Whenever a claim is based upon an instrument in writing, a copy of the document should be attached to the proof of claim. If the document has been destroyed, a statement of the facts and circumstances of the loss must be filed, under oath, with this claim. The right (but not the obligation) to request additional supporting information is retained by the Liquidator. The failure to promptly provide such additional information may result in denial of the claim.

Early submission of your Proof of Claim form(s) will allow the Liquidator to resolve any issues in a timely manner. The Court governs the timing and final payment of approved claims.

Section I:

Complete requested contact and policy information. Ensure claimant's address is current including a correct zip code. You are required to notify the Liquidator of your change of address. If you fail to do so, you may jeopardize recovery from this estate.

Section II:

Please denote the type of claim you are making against NC Mutual:

1. Claim of a general creditor includes claims falling under NCGS 58-30-220 (5). Attach copies of all outstanding invoices to this form.
2. Any other type of claim includes outstanding claims not listed above, other than claims falling under NCGS 58-30-220 (1) and (2). Describe your claim and attach copies of supporting information.
3. Designation of type of claim by the claimant does not determine the correct class or validity of any claim. The Liquidator will determine the correct class and validity of each claim.

Section III:

Complete requested claim information including a concise statement of the facts giving rise to your claim in a separate attachment.

Section IV:

Complete regarding legal representation and/or legal actions. The name, address, and telephone number of the claimant's attorney, if any, must be shown. Attach additional sheets as necessary.

Section V:

The claimant needs to sign and date the form affirming the accuracy of the information provided. Note: N.C. General Statute §58-2-161(b) provides in substance that any person who, with the intent to deceive, injure or defraud an insurer, presents or causes to be presented a written or oral statement in support of a claim for payment or other benefit pursuant to an insurance policy, knowing that the statement contains false or misleading information material to the claim, is guilty of a Class H felony.

Notes:

Claims will be adjudicated, as applicable, in accordance with the North Carolina Statute Chapter 58, Article 30, applicable policy and contract provisions, applicable guaranty fund statutes and/or the Liquidation Order or subsequent orders issued by the Liquidation Court. Appeal guidelines are found in North Carolina Statute 58-30-205.

After all claims against this company are evaluated by the Liquidator and allowed claims are approved by the Court, approved claims will be paid by priority level based on available funds in accordance with N.C. General Statute §58-30-220. The amount of the payment will depend on the assets recovered. The amount to be paid on an individual claim, if any, will not be known until all claims are evaluated and assets are recovered. In any event, payment, if any, will not be made for several years.

The Liquidator's receipt of this proof of claim form does not constitute any waiver or relinquishment by the Liquidator of any defense, setoff, or counterclaim that may exist against any person, entity or governmental agency, regarding any actions pursued by the Liquidator of NC Mutual on behalf of NC Mutual claimants, policyholders and creditors.
